Member Reward Account

All members who join the club automatically have a member reward account opened through the club's reward scheme in their name. Your membership card is your member reward account card. The card can be used to earn reward points when you make purchases in the club's bar and bistro. It can also be used to earn reward points when you play the gaming machines in the club. You can also deposit money into your member reward account, through club reception, and hold these funds in credit to be used for future club purchases at the bar and bistro. You may elect not to use your member reward account and the choice is entirely voluntary, at the member's discretion.

The security of money on your members reward account is the responsibility of both the registered club and the account holder. The government and its agencies take no responsibility for any losses that might occur from the account. An account holder is solely responsible for ensuring that the account holder's personal identification number ("PIN") is kept confidential and that no other person has access to the account holder's member reward card. The account holder is liable for any losses that might arise from, or in connection with, the account holder's failure to comply with such responsibilities.
